JIMMY at The James

SoHo

$$$$ 📍 15 Thompson St.

Jimmy is on the roof of the James Hotel in Soho, and it's better-looking than your average rooftop bar. It also tends to attract well-dressed people who use the word "summer" as both a noun and a verb. So put on something nice and try to meet someone who owns a boat. Or, you know, just people watch. There's an indoor lounge with floor-to-ceiling windows, and there's an outside patio with a pool in the middle. Bring a bathing suit if you're really going for it, just be aware that this place gets pretty busy.
